

The map displays the state of Minnesota with its county boundaries. A yellow shaded region covers the western half of the state, representing the breeding range of the Common Nighthawk. A green shaded region covers the eastern half, representing the non-breeding range. A legend in the bottom right corner identifies these areas: a yellow square for 'Breeding' and a green square for 'Non-breeding'.

droughtmonitor.unl.edu

-
- 5 Class Degradation
- 4 Class Degradation
- 3 Class Degradation
- 2 Class Degradation
- 1 Class Degradation
- No Change
- 1 Class Improvement
- 2 Class Improvement
- 3 Class Improvement
- 4 Class Improvement
- 5 Class Improvement