

A map of Indiana divided into counties, colored according to a poverty scale. The colors range from light yellow (low poverty) to dark brown (high poverty). The map shows a clear trend of increasing poverty from north to south, with the southernmost counties being the darkest brown.

droughtmonitor.unl.edu

-
- | | |
|---|---------------------|
|  | 5 Class Degradation |
|  | 4 Class Degradation |
|  | 3 Class Degradation |
|  | 2 Class Degradation |
|  | 1 Class Degradation |
|  | No Change |
|  | 1 Class Improvement |
|  | 2 Class Improvement |
|  | 3 Class Improvement |
|  | 4 Class Improvement |
|  | 5 Class Improvement |