

A map of the state of Alabama, outlined in black. The map is divided into its 67 counties by thin black lines. In the northwestern corner, several counties are shaded in light gray, indicating a specific region of interest. The shaded area includes parts of the counties of Blount, Crenshaw, and Etowah, as well as the entirety of the counties of Cherokee, De Kalb, and Etowah.

Valid 8 a.m. EDT

 None
 D0 Abnormally Dry
 D1 Moderate Drought
 D2 Severe Drought
 D3 Extreme Drought
 D4 Exceptional Drought

Mark Svoboda
National Drought Mitigation Center

droughtmonitor.unl.edu